Riverside Home Group Discussion Guide

Scripture Text to accompany the themes of the Sunday Sermon; Luke 10:38-42 \(NIV\)

³⁸As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. ³⁹She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!"

⁴¹"Martha, Martha," the Lord answered, "you are worried and upset about many things, ⁴²but few things are needed—or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her."

Discussion/Topic Starter (Ice Breaker)

- Which household chore do you dread the most?

Luke 10:38-42

O: What things in the text strike you or jump out at you? Why?

Another way to ask: "Choose one verse or phrase from the passage that stands out to you. This could be something you're intrigued by, something that makes you uncomfortable, something that puzzles you, something that resonates with you, or just something you want to examine further." Now share it with the group

O: As you read the passage, whose perspective do you most readily identify with? Why do you think that is?

O: What qualities or characteristics do you see in Martha? From Jesus' comments and your observations, how would you describe her struggle in the passage? How might this struggle be rooted specifically in her role as a woman?

I: Martha tells Jesus what he ought to say ("tell her to help me!") while Mary listens to what Jesus wishes to say ("sat at the Lord's feet listening"). As you think of your own life with God, which posture do you most often take? How might you intentionally turn more toward listening?

I: People normally sat on chairs or, at banquets, reclined on couches; but disciples sat at the feet of their teachers. Serious disciples were preparing to be teachers—a role not generally permitted to Jewish women in Jesus' time. How does Jesus' radical acceptance of Mary as a disciple inform our understanding of how Jesus continues to call women as his disciples?

I: Reflect on what Jesus specifically means when he says that Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her? What is that one thing and how might it persist in her life?

A: Where do you see Jesus' expansive mercy at play in this story of Mary and Martha? How might it be challenging you to more fully receive mercy or extend it to others this week?

-How WILL you respond this week? What one question do you want us to ask of you next week in regard to this?

Recommended Follow-up:

Pray: Pray together, and really focus in on that we are meeting with God, He's in the room, and He wants us to KNOW Him. Pray together, spend some time being silent.

Respond: Spend this week responding to God's word as fleshed out in the group time, as well as journey through this week's devotional guide.

An explanation on how Riverside structures these discussion guides*:

Riverside defines a disciple of Jesus as a “Know, Be, Do” person. And since Jesus told us to “make disciples” we use the “Know, Be, Do” framework in our discussion guides. We believe the process for this transformation happens in community, hence the “Together” part of the Riverside mission as well.

Riverside leadership regularly asks questions around these areas:

- “What do we need to know about God?”
- “Who do we need to be?”
- “What do we need to do?”
- “Together, what is our communal identity/response according to the passage/Holy Spirit?”

Here is what we mean by “Know, Be, Do” (based on Colossians 1:9-10, see below)

Know – “to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives..., growing in the knowledge of God.” Not just knowing about Jesus, but knowing Him personally, intimately, and deeply. This is also about knowing the scriptures, knowing the voice of the Holy Spirit, even knowing yourself.

Be – “so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way.” Becoming more like Jesus (sanctification). This is about our character and our heart and our motivations, our passions and convictions change the more we get to Know Jesus (and others).

Do – “bearing fruit in every good work, ...” Knowing Jesus and Becoming like Jesus practically will change our actions. As we grow in these areas we will naturally DO the things that Jesus did while in the flesh on earth (living and loving like Jesus). Some broad categories around DO are evangelism and justice and service.

Notice “bearing fruit in every good work” then yields more “growing in the knowledge of God.” In other words, while “Know, Be, Do” are three distinct words, they are deeply interconnected.

As a side note, the next chapter states: ⁶ So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, ⁷ rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness. ⁸ See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of this world rather than on Christ. (Col. 2:6-8)
To aid in this process Riverside also has a daily devotional guide available each week.

Colossians 1:9-10, NIV

For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives, so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God,...

* As discussed in Riverside’s HGLT (Home Group Leader Training), these guides are to be starting points for home group leaders to develop their own guides and approaches to leading group discussions. This is a resource tool, not a rigid “go through this guide word-for-word.” There are intentionally too many questions for a single home group time. This guide was created in consultation with The IVP Bible Background Commentary, Luke 9:21-18:34—Word Biblical Commentary 35B, Luke: Life Application Bible Studies, NLT, and Luke: New Hope, New Joy by Ada Lum.
