

BE transformed by the SPIRIT

In community we share our diversity and find unity as we experience life together.

Spiritual Gifts Assessment:

FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS ON THE ATTACHED SPIRITUAL GIFTS ASSESSMENT!

Disclaimers:

- The assessment is merely a tool. It cannot substitute for practice. Furthermore, the list of gifts is merely descriptive of what is listed in the Bible; it is not meant to be exhaustive.
 - The assessment can be biased by your past experience, or lack thereof. For example, you might score low on a gift (e.g., teaching) simply because you have never had an opportunity or taken the initiative to use that gift. I highly recommend ministry “experimentation” with as many of the gifts as possible. Increasing the number and diversity of your ministry experiences will help you identify your areas of giftedness more than this test.
 - The assessment can be biased by current situations. For examples, over many years of having taken many gifts assessments, I’ve found that my top three to four gifts to be very consistent, but their ranking very much reflects what I happen to be doing most at the time.
 - The assessment should not be used as an excuse. For example, a low-test score on a gift is not an automatic exemption from practicing that gift, especially when that gift is commanded (e.g., mercy or evangelism).
- 1) Were any of the results surprising to you? Were there any you expected to be higher or lower than were not? Why or why not?

2) What gifts do we have together?

3) How can you use your gifts in your home group and Riverside Church?

Prayer and action: Ask God to show you where He is already at work around you so that you may join Him using your gifts. Look for place(s) and opportunities to exercise your gifts for the common good of the body of Christ. I’m confident that God will not accept “no one asked me” as a valid excuse for not using your gifts! Ask your home group leader(s) about opportunities to use your gifts there. Ask Keith or I about opportunities to use your gifts in Riverside.

The following assessment was adapted from the Wagner – Modified Houts Questionnaire (C. Peter Wagner, Fuller Institute, 1990), which was modified from the original assessment developed by Dr. Richard F. Houts (North American Baptist Theological Seminary, 1976).
